About Inclusio

Inclusio is a company established under Belgian law active in the field of real estate of a social nature in Belgium. The project took its concrete shape at the end of 2014 at initiative of three partners, which reunited their social real estate ambitions: Bank Degroof Petercam (through a subsidiary), Kois and Re-Vive. Inclusio obtained its approval as a public RREC in December 2020 and has been listed on Euronext Brussels since 10 December 2020. Its equity capital, combined with lines of credit, has enabled it to develop its investment activities, mainly in affordable housing, the disability sector and social infrastructure, to reach a portfolio value of EUR 150 million as of 31 December 2020.
